When & How to enroll your Dependents

Just Joined/New Employee	Life Events	At the time of Annual Renewal Cycle (Beginning of Fiscal)
At the time of joining Microsoft, the onboarding team will work with you to get yourself and your dependents enrolled in the benefit. Note: New Joiners who are single employees, can add your eligible dependents only in the following renewal cycle.	If you've just got married, changed your marital status ,had a baby or unfortunate event of death among your enrolled dependents, you may wish to update your dependents. You should write to askhr@Microsoft.com Note: In case you fail to enroll your dependents on time, any change to that will not be possible before the next renewal cycle period	Each year between May/June, you will get a mail reminder from Darwin portal to validate your dependent list in the portal. You can update your dependent list by writing to askhr@Microsoft.com before 30th June Note: In case you fail to enroll your dependents on time, any change to that will not be possible before the next renewal cycle period

* It is the employees' responsibility to ensure that your dependents are enrolled on time to the Flex benefit program.

Life Event Grace Period

Marriage :

- Effective date is the date of marriage
- 30 days from the date of marriage is the grace period

New Born Child :

- Eligibility is 14 days or 2 weeks from date of birth.
- The dependent child can be enrolled within the period of 14 to 44 days from date of birth only
- Technically a 30 days grace period is still given based on eligibility of 2 weeks old.
